Patronize the Bloomfield Post-Office. Free delivery of the mails is now an assured thing, and the Government will look for an increase of business in the Bloomfield Post-office. When the free-delivery system was inaugurated in Montclair the residents of that town lent their assistance to the Postmaster in increasing the business of the office by inducing those who did business in New York and Newark to patronize the local office as much as possible. The result was that the income of the office was swelled to such an extent that the number of carriers has been increased from three to six. Every business man living in Bloomfield should give his patronage to the local office, and by doing this he will materially aid Postmaster Hayes in increasing the postal facilities.

About Boys' Clothing. In selecting a suit for your boy, no matter if it is only a school suit, insist on having one that fits well and is cut in a stylish manner. See to it that the material is not only serviceable, but that it is substantially made. If you secure these two qualifications there is only one left. Let the price be moderate. These are the Three cardinal principles (Style, Quality and Price) upon which we are building up our Boys' Clothing Business. As we handle only Boys' clothing, a visit to our store will repay you.
